Eloping Bride Must Wait for

ally Mother's Portion of 31.000,000 Estate.

Examination yesterday of the will of Mrs. Ellen Sheffield Phelps, widow of William Walter Pheips, who died in the try Buckingham Hotel on August 31, shows that while bequests to one charity and various relatives, including several grandchildren, exceeded $160,000, the instrument does not include any gift of money to the testator's granddaughter, abroad Miss Frances Phelps, whose elopement Licut. Charling Thursday with Arthur A. Korth, an in London. tomobile mechanic, shocked her fam-and startled society.

However, upon the death of her mother, Mrs. Theodore L. Peters, Mrs. Korth will divide with her brother, Mr. Phelps Phelps, a one-third interest in her grandmother's estate, which has been estimated at $1,000,000. The only bequest to Mrs. Korth was of some treasured family laces.

R. W. Bernard, a lawyer of 145 Broadway, speaking for Mrs. Peters, yesterday said: "There has been no famconference regarding the future of Mrs. Korth. Although Mrs. Peters is deep ly aggrieved over her daughter's elope ment, her home is open to her daughter whenever Mes. Korth wishes to return. At present Mks. Peters is not inclined to receive her son in-law."

COMING HERE WITH BRIDE.

Among the passengers on board the imperator, due here next Saturday, are Mapt. and Mrs. Allan D. Perrins of Scot-send. Mrs. Perrins was Miss Marie Rodewald, a daughter of Mr. W., Macell Rodewald of this city and Tuxedo Park. She was married to Capt, Perparents, Ardress Castle, in Scotland, and it will be her first visit here since their marriage. During their stay they will be with Mr. Rodewald. Capt. Perrins in 1914 was an officer in the famous Seaforth Highlanders and was one of the few survivors of that regiment after the first battle of the Marne. While in France he was awarded the Croix de by the King of Italy.

FARRAR-BIDWELL.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. STOCKERIDGE, Mass., Sept. 29.—Miss Marion Carter Bidwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bidwell of this town, was married to the Rev. Charles Osborne Farrar yesterday in St. Paul's Albany. Episcopal Church, of which he is curate. Thomas Frederick Davies of Springfield was assisted at the service by the Rev. George Grenville Merrill of Stockbridge and the Rev. Edwin Jukes of Oxford, N. S. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Harold 12. D. Castillo of Brooklyn, N. Y., was best man. Among those at the church were the bridegroom's parents, the Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, paster emeritus of the First Dutch Reformed Church, Brooklyn, and Mrs. Farrar; Mr. and Mrs. James L. Karrick of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Miss Mabel Choate, Mrs. Oscar Insigi, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sedgwick and Miss Emily

KLUGESCHIED-BALLARD.

Miss Helen Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Marten Ballard of III West Eighty-third street, was mar-ried to Mr. Richard Charles Klugeschied esterday morning in St. Agnes's Chapel, West Ninety-second street, near lumbus avenue, by the vicar, the Rev. New York passed yesterday in Washing-W. W. Bellinger. The bride's attendant ton and entertained friends at luncheon was Miss Rosamond E. Ballard, a at the Shoreham. best man. Mr. and Mrs. Klugeschied will live at 160 Claremont avenue.

ROBINSON-THOMPSON.

Miss Edith Carolyn Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thompson of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was mar ried to Mr. Frederick Dewart Robinson of Hamilton, Ont., yesterday in the St. Regis ballroom. The Rev. William Dewart, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated. Dr. Albert Robinson of Monttrip in Canada Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will live in Syracuse, N. Y.

church. The bride's niece, Miss Eliza-beth Van Liew, was flower girl. The best man was Mr. Sydney C. Lee, a brother of the bridegroom. Miss Alice Pool of Bay Ridge played the wedding march. A reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will live in Bay Ridge.

MACDONALD-RAYNOR.

The marriage of Miss Constance Raydaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albertus D. Rayner of Hawtherne place, and Bryce Inglis MacDonald of Wilmington, Del., took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Warren F. Cook. Miss Edith Archer was D. S. C., the Legion of Honor, the Croix Philadelphia, Pa. maid of honor and the best man was Mr.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK. Among the passengers on beard the Dlympic, which sailed for New York yes-Phelps Fortune Charles Steele, Mr. and Mrs. James Greenwich Village Speyer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Grace, Mrs. Flerpont Morgan Hamilton, Mrs. Jules S. Bache, Mr. Alfonso de Navarro and Mrs. Philip W. Livermore. and Mrs. Philip W. Livermore, > Mrs. Howard Carroll has sent out in distinct for the marriage of her daugh er. Miss Caramai Carroll to Mr. J. T. Irvington Presbyterian Church, Irvington-on-Hudson. The reception will be in Carrollelist in Tarrytown, the counhome of Mrs. Carroll.

> Mrs. William H. Bright and her daughter, Miss Joy Bright, of Wildwood, N. J., will sail to-day on board the Magretania, Soon after their arrival Lieut. Charles Gray Lititle, U. S. N.

> Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Scott, who went to Bar Harbor, Me., on their arrival from California, will return next week to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kip Rhinelander will pass the winter in Tuxedo Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livingston will return to New York from Bar Harbor. Me., in the middle of October.

Alicia Patterson of Chicago

om Newport to the St. Regis Hotel.

Mr. Bertrum de N. Croger has taken an apartment at 145 East Sixtleth street

Among the incoming passengers from sagement to Baron de Villiers de Ter-age of Paris was announced recently.

Mrs. Henry B. Hyde will return from saratoga Springs, N. Y., on October 22, Miss Edith G. Howdoin will close he come in Har Harbor, Me., on next Mon-Guerre, as well as the British Military day and make a fortnight's tour by Cross, Later he was made a Chevaller automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sage have come to the St. Regis from Atlantic

Mr. John D. Rockefeller arrived by automobile with a party of friends at Buckwood Inn. Shawnee-on-Delaware. Pa., yesterday and had luncheon at the

Mrs. Joseph C. Hongiand and her son n-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Drexel Godfrey, have taken for the winter the house at 4 East Sixty-fourth street, formerly the home of Mrs. How-

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown Hedger will give a dinner at the Piping Rock Club to-morrow for Mr. Frederic Potts

WASHINGTON.

Secretary of War Baker has returns

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Dolleny

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Adams, acc panied by their daughters, Mrs. Fairfax Davis Downey and Miss Lida Adams, arrived yesterday by automobile from at Sachuest Lodge, has returned to their summer place in West Springfield, Boston, by the Rev. Dr. Potter. Mrs. sey's first husband was Charles Ingram of Baltimore. They were divorced sev-

Mr. Whittlesey is a brother of Lieut. Col. Charles W. Whittlesey, commander war served overseas as an officer in the Daly. Miss Mulqueen was a debutante of last year and was graduated from Brearley School. She is a granddaughter of the late Mayor Thomas F. Gilroy and was interested in many welfare activitles during the war.

Mr. Daly is a son of the late Mr. and de Guerre with palm and star and the

Not So Spooky as Name Implies.

GREENWICTH VILLAGE THEATHE—THIRDE LAVE GIGORTS," a comedy in three acts, by Frederic B. Isham.
Mrs. Gubbins. Miss Beatrice Miller Builds. Emmest Shackeford Jimmic Gubbins. Charles McNaughton William Foster. Percy Helion Spoofy. Cyril Chawles Rosse Gordon. Miss Flora Sheffield Briggs of Scotland Yard. Charles Datton Beason. Arthur Metcalfa Lady Leicester. Miss Mercedes Desmore

Don't be afraid of "Three Live skipey mother's seance to hold com- had assembled. unloation with hr stepson, reported. The result w dead in the fighting, and toward whom she feels quite benevolent, as she is ollecting his insurance. But Jimmic Subbina returns, just out of a German prison, anything but a ghost, though ne is unable to convince his Government he is alive when he tries to collect his oack pay. However, his stepmother, while con inced of his reality, undergoes a change f heart toward him for that reason. intil she prevails on him to remain dead to keep the insurance payments alive. His pals who escaped with him from the German camp also have their rearons for being dead, as they were re-ported, for William Foster, an American soldier, is wanted for a orime in New York, while Spoofy, a distinguished look-ng Britisher, has been shell shocked, so but his mind is the part of him that as been buried.

Their attempts to remain concealed in Mrs. Gubbins's lodging might have been uccessful if Spoofy's kleptomarka hadn't exercome him and he hadn't kidnapped a baby that "asked to be taken away," as he explained. Scotland Yard descends on them and dire doom threatens, but a crack on Spoofy's head from a detecive's billy straightens things out ad-

The play itself at the start wanders imlessly a bit as though also suffering from nervous prostration. In such a unique predicament one expects such out of the way characters to be up and loing something entertainingly bizarre, instead of constantly explaining to each ther why their predicament is unique However, the piece hits a liveller strice we it proceeds, so that last night's audiace presently began to laugh without celling it was being polite.

Largely that was due to Beryl Mercer, rho played the irresponsible Cockney nother. Charles McNaughton, acting even more richly and with a range than in his previous Three Muske-teers role in "The Better 'Ole," was anther outstanding figure as her stepso The rest of the cast, outside of Charles Dalton as a detective, were hardly strong enough to go very far in keeping "Three Live Ghosts" above ground

RESORT NOTES. NEWPORT.

Mr. John Russell Pope returned from lew York yesterday, joining Mrs. Pope at Sherwood, where they will spend the

New York yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. P. Baker, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Harriet F. Brownell, Opera House orchestra.

Mr. Drexel Biddle, who has bee pending a few weeks at the Muenchinger King, went to Philadelphia to job ds parents, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle. Judge Pere L. Wicks and Mrs. Wicks eye closed their Jamestown cottage and left for Boston.

THE BERKSHIRES.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Lawence Wood of Santa Barbara, Cal., are topping with Mrs. J. Frederick Schenck Mrs. William B. Osgood Field left Lenox yesterday with a party of New York friends on a shooting trip to the Casca Paedit River Club House, P. Q.

Gov. Calvin Coolidge and Mrs. lidge of Boston are at the Wendell Hotel in Pittsfield. The Governor will deliver an address at the Great Barrington Fair to-day. Arrivals yesterday at the Curtis Hotel,

MISS MULQUEEN ENGAGED.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Mulqueen of Miss Katharine M. Post, Mrs. Andrew engagement of their daughter, Miss Mr. R. Kerens Kenna of New York, Madeline Mulqueen, to Mr. Paul Gerard
Daly. Miss Mulqueen was a dabutant mobile trip to Boston, the North Shore and White Mountains.

Mrs. Arthur Hunnewell, the Misses Jane B. and Julia O. Hunnewell, who were with Mr. and Mrs. George Baty Blake in Lenox, started yesterday for

At the Aspinwall Hotel, Lenox, are Mr. and Mrs. C. Hartman Kuhn of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson W. Foos and Mr. Huntington T. Day of New York.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slattery and his mother, Mrs. George Slattery, who have had the Bishop villa in Lenox this season, will return to New York to-

Mrs. Rogal Whitman closed her villa in Tyringhom yesterday and returned to New York.

HOT SPRINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso P. Villa have ar-Other arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. Will-Mr. and Mrs. James J. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Williams of abeth Terriberry, to Mr. Reginald Bar-Pittsburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome low Hoyt, son of Mr. George Hall Hoyt Napoleon Bonaparte of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney R. Russell of Detroit, Mich. Mr. John W. Davis, American Ambassador to Great Britain, and Mr. Henry P. Scott of Wilmington, Del., played over the long golf course yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coster Steers gave a dinner last night in the Homestead. The guests included the Misses Margaret Harding, Frances Ballard and Olyve C. Graef and Messra. Balsley P. Elebash, J. H. Stevenson and James Mrs. Francis H. Sisson had for guests at dinner last night Mr. and Mrs. Harry

Campbell Graef, Justice Richard P. Ly-don and Miss Cornelia P. Lydon. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Palmer, Mr. C. W. Palmer of Stamford, Conn.; Miss Helen H. Keaseby of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. A. T. McBain of Sherbrooke, Ont.; Mr. John Russell Sheehan of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tiede-

THREE COMEDIANS THE BEST OF "BROADWAY BREVITIES"

Messrs, Cantor, Williams and Le Maire Do Much With Slender Material.

made the prevailing saluation between vaudeville actors "Have you a little Chosts" at the Greenwich Village Theatre—it won't scare any one with spookiness, and it may even amuse. Those who went to the tiny playhouse last night to see Max Marcin's initial presentation of Frederic E. Isham's comedy saw nothing astral, though the play itself sometimes became as thin as a shost.

To be sure at the rise of the curtain

Vera Grosset and Hal Van Rensellear. To be sure, at the rise of the curtain Vera Grosset and Hal Van Rensellear, on the London ledgings of Mrs. Gubbins toward the end of the war there was ston—they were some of the powers, a suggestion of the spiritualistic in the known and unknown, that Mr. Le Maire

The result was enough like the home brew to satisfy the Winter Garden pub-lic. Irving Berlin and other song writers of eminence had composed the music and the text was attributed on the programme to Blair Treynor, which did not in the least prevent much of it from sounding altogether impromptu. two acts contained altogether twenty-two scenes, which shifted in the usual manner of regular Winter Garden shows, although, as a whole, the plan of "Broadway Brevities" was less ambitious than Mr. Shubert's.

Mr. Le Maire and Bert Williams be gan the regular fun of the evening with a prison scene which proved fairly amusng, although Mr. Williams was perhap more unctuous in his later songs. Le Maire, repeating with Mr. Cantor their famous esteopath scene from last year's "Follies," was as comic as ever The prelude, which showed Mr. Cantor's struggles in a dentist's chair at the hands of the gentle Mr. Le Maire, added an amusing touch of novelty to the epi-side, which is in itself funny enough to of the entertainment from an occasiona sinking spell, which was at its worst when "The Stage Door Blues" impended Then a strong dose of vulgarity in this terday when Attorney-General Palmer song pulled the place together. It reounted the wors of the chorus since the Eighteenth Amendment.

more to make "Broadway Brevitles" There was no wealth of material

TO MANAGE LA SCALA TOUR.

Mr. Cyphers came to Detroit on September 1, 1916, after five years' experi-ence in the musical managerial world.

ACTRESS SECRETLY WED.

Miss Ruth Shepley Married to Mr.

Miss Ruth Shepley, last seen here in Adam and Eva" at the Longacte Thetre, was married to Mr. Gordon Sarre, a New York exporter, on July 5, in New Haven. H was announced yesterday. Only a few friends knew of the maronly a few riage of the actress. Since the summer Miss Shepley has Since the summer Miss Shepley has been appearing on the road in "Wild $14,000,000,000. The excess profits tax. Cherry" and says that marriage will not he said, should be repealed and the ininterfere with her professional career. She expects to play in the piece later in the season here. Mr. Sarre was an officer during the war in the French army and won the Croix de Guerre.

ENGAGES MISS BESSIE M'COY. Bessie McCoy for a prominent part in his "all star" revue, now in process of organization. The cast includes Joe other notable entertainers.

Winifred Braden of San Francisco, Cal. years old, has been married twice previously. Death claimed one of his wives and he was divorced from the other in California. Miss Braden, who is 30 years old, was never married before. She was born in Helena, Mont., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Braden, Announcement was made yesterday by Dr. and Mrs. J. Fred Terriberry of 120 West Seventy-third street of the en-gagement of their daughter, Miss Elizof 393 West End avenue.

Miss Maud Earl, English artist, is returning to this country on board the Baltic and will visit Col. H. Rieman Duval at Falmouth, East Islip, L. I. Miss Edith Adelaide Judson, daughter of Mrs. William Beardsley Judson, will be married to Mr. Raymond Glenn Mere-dith of Norfolk, Va., to-day in the chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church.

Beautiful weather following yesterday's showers brought many motor par-ties to the Mount Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Boardman of Manchester-by-the-Sea stopped en route

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Harde and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pouch of New York arrived by automobile at the company also controls numerous apartents on the East Side as far north as Ninety-sixth street, said that tenants scheduled to move are walling to see what the other fellow is going to do. In many instances, he said, the tenants who must vacate have made arrangements with those who are supposed to become occupants of the apartment to become occupants of the apartment to sister of Col. John Jacob Astor, who morrow to remain until the rush is Mr. Moore pointed out that while these agreements between tenants help was filed yesterday in the Surrogates' somewhat they merely add to the con- Court. She left the bulk of her for-

CITY MOVING DAY

Continued from Pirat Page.

In Manhattan the greater part of the moving seems to be located in the East Side and Harlem. Along the West Side and in Washington Heights the realty men expect very little confusion. J. M. Masten of Slawson & Hobbs, 162 West Seventy-second street, which manages a large amount of real estate in this section, said the volume of moving would not be as great as it was in the spring or last October. Most of the tenants have signed new leases. What moving will be done in these sections, he said, would be mostly into old fashioned one family houses which have been remodelled into small apartments.

Brooklyn will have a heavy migration of families. But no great amount of Mrs. Halg was the daughter of Mr. trouble is expected because most of the and Mrs. William Astor. Under certain moving will be into houses that have been bought recently and which the owner intends to occupy. George Hor-ton of Bulkley & Horton declared Very few evictions are scheduled for to-mor-row and that a large part of the moving would be into houses which tenants have purchased on the cooperative plan. This movement has spread greatly throughout the borough in the last six months. The Bronx, which has been the scene of no end of landlord and tenant troubles, will pass October 1 without incident, in the opinion of Walter E. Brown of 3-28 Third avenue. Most of the tenants have renewed their leases and there have been no vacant apart-ments for cent for months. There will e very little confusion in Staten Island. Cornelius G. Kaiff of St. George said there will be some changes, but the ma-jority of the tenants are holding on to heir present quarters. Charles Morris, president of the Van

Owners Association, which controlled more than 2,000 moving vans, said that about 1,000 of the association's vans would be operating to-morrow. The teamsters are still out on strike in Manhattan, he said, but many of the men have returned to work in Brooklyn and The Bronx. It was his belief that there would be a large influx of out of town moving vans and that many produce merchants and owners of other large hat a price fixing combination among reucks would impress their vehicles into e moving service for the emergency. No orders have been taken by the ince September 1, when the strike of the began. torney General asking him to place any waited until September 24, Mr. Morris information that he had before United said, to see if the strikers returned, and when they did not the work of recruit Etates Atorney Francis.G. Caffey, who ing new teamsters was begun. Mr. has been instructed to "consider whether Morris said the force now on hand the facts tend to show a violation of would be sufficient if the moving period the Foderal lows." Me Siegel probable was stretched over two or three months the Federal laws." Mr. Siegel probably and not confined to a week or ten days will see Mr. Caffey to-day. State At- as it is under the system of dating leases torney General Charles D. Newton also from October 1. He has advocated an extending of the period, but real estate men are adverse to the movement on the he is "quietly eneaged" in an investiground it "has been the practice and will always be so."

LANDLORD OUSTS POLICE.

ouse directly across the street, at 248 LOST—Black patent leather suit case, left in taxicab Friday moring, September 24, in front of 235 W. 84th st.; contents of no merly conductor of the Metropolitan that local dealers, in view of the general has housed the station for the last five reduction of prices reported from all years, refused to renew the lease, say-parts of the country, should agree to a ling he was losing money on the property. Richard E. Enright, Police Commis sioner, called the matter to the attention of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment some time ago and $37,500 was appropriated to purchase the new quar-ters. The police will take possession at midnight to-night.

RENT WORRY CAUSES SUICIDE.

Mrs. Anna Schwartz, Facing Eviction, Hangs Self in Her Room. Inability to find new rooms after sevulations amount of tax exempted securities amount of tax exempted secur Rockaway Beach. The family had to move October L another search and their son had gone to work. Mrs. Schwartz hanged her-

Messrs. W. H. Taft 2d, and J. B. C. Tappen, Misses Martha Wall and Dorine 000,000 of that money to invest in se-Fitgerald, and Messrs. C. C. Bourne and Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Com-Walbridge S. Taft. missioner, submitted a summary of housing conditions to the Senate Com-Mrs. Thomas B. Yuille and the Misses Burke and Melissa Yuille returned to New York yesterday, Miss E. T. Martin of New York was among the arrivals yesterday.

Mr. Hamilton Davis and Miss Mary

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Dr. Copeland said he believed rents could be controlled and a profit left for the landlorda. However, he said that if houses could not be supplied in any other way they should be built with the iandlords. However, he said that if houses could not be supplied in any other way they should be built with public funds. If $100,000 worth of housing bonds were issued by the city they would be purchased by the public, be said.

At this city the control of the image is the city of Sykes in "French Leave," the English comedy by Reginald Berkeley, in which the Coburns will be featured.

The Selwyns will open their new Times with "The Mirage,"

The Selwyns will open their new Times Square Theatre to-night with "The Mirage," starring Miss Florence Reed.

Charles Dillingham and Fred Stone will celebrate the twentieth year of their association when the comedian appears in "Tip Top" at the Globe Theatre, commencing next Tuesday evening. Mr. Dillingham first engaged Fred Stone in 1900 for "The Girl from Up There" as chief comedian with Miss Edna May.

Miss Florence Walton, dancer, has sailed on board La France and will arrive in New York on Saturday to open in vaudeville. With to-day's matinee Miss ina Claire will enter upon her second year in David Belasco's production of Avery Hopwood's comedy "The Gold Diggers" at the Lyceum Theatre. Ehe never has missed a performance out of 425.

ance out of 425.

Miss Hazel Dawn, who left the "movies" to return to her first love, the spoken drama, has reverted to the pictures again, having signed a contract with A. J. Bimberg to star in a series of spectacular pictures of modern life, the first of which will be put into production this week under the title of "What is Love?" Among the passengers arriving yeswas Rosa Raisa, soprano of the Chicago Opera Company. The singer said she was anxious to meet her father, who terday on board the Duca degli Abruzzi

MRS. C.A.HAIG WILLS BRINGS CONFUSION ESTATE TO CHILDREN

lost his life in the Titanic disaster, tune to her three children, Caroline Astor Phillips, wife of William Phillips attached to the American Embassy at The Hague; Henry Coleman Drayton and William Aster Drayton, residing in

Mrs. Haig was married twice. After 1896 and subsequently married George He was born in Brooklyn and educated O. Haig, of the firm of Haig & Haig, at St. Laurent College, Montreal, Canwhiskey distillers, London. Mr. Haig ada. He played at various times in died in 1895. Thereafter his widow resided abroad and was in Neutlly, land League and was regarded as a France, at the time of her death on skilful fielder. He leaves two brothers July 10 last. She directed, in her will, and a sister. that her body be buried beside her sec ond husband in England indentures executed by her father she received the income from trust funds and had the power of disposal of the principal in her will. She bequeathed Park, Staten Island, Mrs. Van Name, $20,000 of the principal to her son, Henry Coleman Drayton, and directed that the born and had lived practically her entitled the principal college. balance be distributed equally among her three children. The trust fund ca- house in which she died. She belonged tablished for her in 1903 by her mother to a family who were among the first she directs shall be divided equally to settle Staten Island. among her three children.

"It is my wish to keep my estate in my family," she stated in her will, "and that if I leave no descendants, my sisters and their descendants shall benefit rather than the descendants of my de-ceased brother (John Jacob Astor), who eft a large fortune of his own."
Mrs. Halg left annuities of $500 each to her domestic employees and $1,500 a year to her friend, Clara L. Upward. The will on file here disposes of her American property only. In a separate will she disposed of her property in England. The value of her estate is not Pormer Newspaper Man Was Democratic Publicity Worker.

Word was received last night of the eath in Chicago yesterday of Harry Haselwood, newspaper man, who re-signed his position on the copy desk of the Evening World to become assistant director of publicity of the Democratic rganization in Chicago. His death was ue to pneumonia.

Before coming to New York Mr. Haselwood was telegraph editor on a Chicago newspaper, and before that was on the staff of the Denver Post. He was 35 years old and is survived by his widow, who lives at his birthplace,

LOST AND FOUND.

A reward will be paid for information lead-ing to recovery of 1929 Maxwell, 5 passen-ger, blank touring body; serial No. 397835, motor No. 398902, license No. 219820, N. Y.; stolen from in front of 45 President st., liroskiva, September 23, about 12:39 P. M. SHERWOOD ADJUSTING BUREAU, 68 William st. John 3848.

Refuses to Renew Lease and Precinct Moves Out.

The police of the West 1Mth street will be rewarded if he will return case and station began moving their records and contents to Mr. EICHHORN. Worster Thomas & Co., 82 hroad st.

LOST-At Polo Grounds, Monday afternoon, upper grandstand, violin in black leather case, green plush lining, labelled inside violin "O. H. Bryant. Boston, No. 98." Reward if returned to A. L. Langley, 32 St. Nicholas place, Tel. Audubon 1684.

LOST-Gray suede bag, containing keys, nioney and piece of lewelry, Lexington or Madison ays., in the 60°s, Wednesday, Sep-tember 29; reward, RIPLEY, Devon Hotel, 70 W. 55th st.

LOST-Cane, initials "Z. E. M.," in taxl; re-ward. Apartment 4A, 148 West 96th.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

I.OST-September 28, large piathnum pin with 4 diamonds, 1 pearl; reward. LOST AR-

5th av. and 45th st.

$75 REWARD
for return of gent's watch monogramed
"L. J. A." and platinum chain, lost September 20, between West 22d and 34th sts. I. H. and B. H. WEINHERG, 665 5th av. * $500 REWARD for return of diamond flexible bracelet lost Sept. 22, at or between Vanderblit Hotel and 270 Park av. BLACK. STARR & FROST,
5th av. and 48th st.

Wearing Apparel. liberal, reward, no questions asked— While moving from 340 W. 89th st. to the Behord moving man lost corrugated box containing trousers, shirts, collars and ties. Phone Longacre 2230, or call 601 10th av.,

1 OST-Dropped, sable neckpiece, front Sist Street Theatre or left in taxi from Eastern Steamship Co. to 540 West 112th st. Reward, M. REEVES, tel, 9602 Catheat. dral.

LOST—At Eltinge Theatre on Wednesday evening, September 29, two skin sable scarf. Liberal reward, no questions asked, if returned to 51 East 62d st.

LOST-Wide seal scarf, about 50 inches long, in Peacock alley, Astor Hotel; liberal re-ward, 288 5th av., room 606. ward, 288 5th av., room 606.

OVERCOAT LEFT IN TAXI.

Fifty Dollars reward, no questions asked of taxi cab driver who found overcoat in taxi after taking sentleman to Hudson Theatre September 21. Return to WILLIAM DALEY, Head Porter, Hotel St. Regis.

Quincy, Di. While in New York Mr. Hazelwood lived at the home of Maurice Ketten, cartoonist, at 50 West Sixty-seventh street, Mrs. Ketten was his

MRS, PREDERICK GRAHAM LEE. Mrs. Frederick Graham Lee, whose death occurred in Cooperstown, N. Y., on Monday, was a daughter of the late Lispenard Stewart of this city. The funeral was held yesterday in Christ Church, Cooperstown.

Mrs. Lee, who was in her eightyfourth year, was Sarah Lispenard Stowart, and was one of two daughters of the late Lispenard Stewart and his first wife, who was Louisa S. Salies. Her slater was married to John II. Trever of New York. Mrs. Frank S. Witherbee and Lispenard and William Rhinelander Stewart are half sister and half brothers of Mrs. Lee.

PHILIP MICHAEL REARDON.

Funeral services will be held this morn ng for Philip Michael Reardon, 38 years old, who played right field for the Brooklyn National League baseball team in twelve years of married life with J. 1904. Reardon died on Tuesday of pieu-Goleman Drayton she divorced him in risy at St. Mary's Hospital in Brooklyn.

MRS. ELIZABETH VAN NAME.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Van Name, mother of Borough President Calvin D. Van Name, of Richmond, died Tuesday night tire life in the close vicinity of the house in which she died. Hhe belonged

SAN SALVADOR Sont 29 - Samuel Luna, formerly Minister of Finance, De velopment and Agriculture, died here yesterday and was buried to-day with military honors. He held various Min isterial posts 'n a number of admini-

Santiago, Chile, Sept. 29 .- Jose Maria Bari, a retired General and member of MARRIED.

Bower, Daniel F. Brett, Sarah S. P. Callard, Mary Ortgles, Eliza Oseens, Patrick J. Callerd, Mary Codington, Lewis M.
Dinsmore: Andrew A.
Emery, Mary E.
Froote, David M.
Friedenhelt, Gersou
Higgins, Marguerite
James, Howard
Jehl, Louis Platt, Alfred H. Prime, Rasph E. Reardon, Philip M. Stroud, Emma Tayler, Sarah M. Willey, George P. Welff, Paul

copy.

BRETT.—Suddenly, at Paris, on September & Sarah Shotwell Price, daugitter of Renjamin M. Price and Anna Shotwell Price and wife of the late Martin Wiltele Brett. Funeral service at her late real dence, 167 West 87th st., Priday, October I, at 11 A. M.

CALLARD.—Mary, wife of George F. Callard of Elm et., Histwood, N. J., passed away suddenly September 28, 1929. Funeral service 2:30 P. M. Friday, October I. Kindly omit flowers.

tend.

DINBMORE.—At 201 West 105th st., N. Y.,
Rev. Andrew A. Dinamore, D. D., beloved husband of Margaret Woodburn Dinamore, in the 86th year of his age. Funeral services at Broadway Presbyterian Church, 114th st. and Broadway, Saturday, October 2, at 10:30 A. M. Interment Rosedale Cemetery, Orange, N. J., at the convenience of the family.

EMERY Seat 20, 1000 Marry Misshall.

HIGGINS -September 29, 1920, at Winster

Oct. 1, about 2 P. M.
KEANE.—On Monday, September 27, MaisiM. Keane, daughter of the late Patrick
J. Keane and Julia Mulry Keane. Prineral from her late home, 603 Fifth av.
Astoria, L. I., Friday, October 1. Solenin requiem mass at Our Lady of Mount Carmel R. C. Church, Astoria, L. I., at 10 A. M.

ORTGIES.—On Wednesday, September 29, 1920, at her residence 346 Burns st., Forest Hills, L. I., Ellias, widow of John Ortgies. Notice of funeral later. OWENS.—Patrick J., on Wednesday, September 29, 1920, beloved husband of Emma E. Owens (nes Le Page). Funeral from his late residence, 29 Hamilton av, Yonkers, N. Y., on Saturday, at 8:30 A. M.; thence to St. Peter's Church, Yonkers. Internent St. Agnes's Cemetery, Albany, N. Y. Albany papers please copy.

PRIME.-On Monday, September 27, 1920, at his residence, Yonkers, N. Y., Raibh E. Prime, late Lieutenaut-Colonel U. S. Volunteers, in the Sist year of his age. Puneral services at First Presbyterlan Church, Yonkers, Thursday, September 20, 2 P. M.

STROUD.—Emma. The Funeral Church (Frank E. Campbell), Broadway, 65th st., Thursday, 2 P. M.

st., Thursday, 2 P. M.
TAYLOR.—Sarah M., September 27. Funeral from the home of her brother, Edward R. Taylor, 1322 Elmore place, Flathush, Brocklyn. Solemn requiem mass 0:30 Thursday morning at St. Brendan's R. C. Church, Av. O. East 12th st. Interment Greenwood Cemetery. Plainfield, N. J., papers please copy.

OLFF.-Paul. 'The Funeral Church' (Frank E. Campbell), Broadway at 65th gt., Thursday, 5 P. M.

UNVEILINGS.

NEWMAN.—Unveiling in memory of our be-loved brother, Leopold Newman, will take place at Mount Carmel Cemetery, Sun-day, Oct. 10, 1920, at 2:30 P. Rela-tives and friends invited.

THE GIDDING TAILOR MADE SUIT PRESS OR COAT HAS SET THE STANDARD 191 AMERICAN CLOTHES

J.M. Gidding & Ca-564-560 mo 568 Wilh Avenue. 46" m. 47" STS

-the Paris Model reproduced or adapted as well as the most successful American styles are side by side in this wonderful assemblage of smart tailored fashions from the quiet and unassuming two-piece suit to the most elegant three-piece costume or handsome day wrap-with fur or without-there are no women's tailored clothes to equal them. Prices quality for quality - are consistently lower than in any other fashion house of its kind in America.

Passengers for Europe to-day on board he Mauretania will include Mr. and Mra. Gurnee Munn, Mrs. Joseph Medill Patterson and the Misses Ellnor and

Mrs. Charles H. Haldwin has come

Europe are Mrs. Charles de Itham and her sister Miss Buth King, whose en-

Mrs. H. Van Rensselaer Kennedy has cturned to her house in Hempstead, L. , from New York.

from New York. Mrs. Baker's father Mr. Howard Leopold, who has been he guest, has returned to Pottstown, Pa.

WHITTLESEY-INGRAM. Mrs. Adelaide Gould Ingram, daugher of the late Elgin R. L. Gould and Mrs. Gould of 14 East Sixtleth street, and Mr. Melzar Merrick Whittlesey, son real was best man. A reception and of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Whittlessy of breakfast followed. After a wedding Pittsfield, Mass., were married Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Whittlesey of evening in All Souls' Unitarian Church

LEE-BENNETT. Miss Emily G. Bennett, daughter of eral years ago. She is the sister of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll Bennett of Lyttleton D. T. Gould, E. C. B. Gould Hay Ridge, Brooklyn, and Mr. Albert and John H. P. Gould. Morgan Lee, son of Mrs. Emma C. Lee of Savannah, Ga., were married yester-Col. Charles W. Whittle day afternoon at the home of the bride's of the Lost Battalion. He was gradu-sister, Mrs. Alfred B. Van Liew, Bloom- ated from Yale in 1917 and during the field, N. J., by the Rev. Horace Leavitt, pastor of the Bay Ridge Presbyterian

Don't Be Afraid of 'Live Ghosts' in

There was a new show at the Winter Garden last night—but with a difference. It was not indigenous, grown on the spot under the watchful eye of J. J. Shubert. As a matter of fact, it blossomed in Philadelphia and was imported for the occupation of the runway. "Broadway Brevities" was its name and thus it ended out a season of foiles, scandals, in entertainment, which is said to have

Be that as it may, in the words of endure. This did not save the first part

Pictorial interludes included "Spanish Luilding material manufacturers is ag-Love," sung by Miss Edith Hallor, looking uncommonly lovely in her Spanish dress, and Hal Van Rensellear, a tenor with a very agreeable voice and unusuilly pleasant personality. Then there ras the snowlake ballet with an new-setic ballet to precede it. But it was the humor of Mr. Cantor that made the deepest impression on the audience. He and Mr. Williams and Mr. Le Maire did welcome than any of their associates or, for that matter, anything that they had

Harry Cyphers Leaves the Detroit gation of the charges. Symphony Orchestra. special to THE REN AND NEW YORK HERALD. DETROIT, Sept. 29. - Harry Cyphers, for the last four years manager of the Mayor's conference committee on hous-tetroit Symphony Orchestra, resigned ing. to meet in his office at the Municipal on Tuesday, to take effect on November 1. He will go to New York to become an associate of Louden Chariton, noon to discuss means of stimulating the His first responsibility there will be the building of apartment houses. Mr. Mann Mrs. Henry Fletcher Godfrey left for management of the tour of the La Scala sent out the invitations at the direction under Arturo Toscanini, for-reduction in this city.

Gordon Sarre on July 6,

HENRY C. BREEDEN TO WED. Henry C. Breeden, who gave his address as the Metropolitan Club, 1 East Sixtieth street, and described himself as capitalist, obtained a license at the Municipal Building yesterday to wed The data of the wedding was not anunced. His office address is 100

WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Miss Edith Hallor

U. S. OPENS BUILDING PROBE IN NEW YORK

Palmer Orders Investigation of Charges of Conspiracy to Fix Prices of Materials. The first official move on the part of the Government to learn if there exists a building conspiracy came to light yes-ordered an investigation of the charges gravating the housing situation. teen urging such an investigation, made has informed Representative Siegel that

Local builders, dealers and manufac turers of building materials have been asked by Frank Mann, chaleman of the of Mayor Hylan, who said he thought

Will Suggest Cutting Price. In his letter ta the builders, Mr. Mann said he wanted to learn what effect, if any, the new rent laws would have on He said he would suggest hem that the best way to increase building is to reduce the price of materials. In a speech at the luncheon of the Idwanis Club at the Hotel McAlpin Senator William M. Calder urged a modification of the income tax laws He pointedo ut that during the war the total amount of tax exempted securi-come from real estate made exempt Taxes Reduce Net Interest. "I talked to a man this morning," ENGAGES MISS BESSIE M'COY.

Said enator Calder, "who had $25,000,-000 invested in 6 per cent mortgages.

He told me that because of the large number of taxes on that money he earned only 11/2 per cent, on the investment, and that he was calling in $7.

curities which would be exempt.

tion, and said he thought Government building should be undertaken in the emergency. He said that in one block in New York city 10,000 persons live. and that in a square mile there are 590,000 persons. Such conditions morals. Dr. Copeland said he believed rents mittee on Reconstruction and Produc-by the Legislature giving the legislative starring body of a city power to exempt new dwellings from local taxation Henry H, Curran, President of the Borough of Manhattan, will present to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to-morrow a resolution requesting that the Board of Aldermen enact an ordinance immediately putting this act into operation.

men as soon as possible.

MISS ROSA RAISA ARRIVES. Soprano of Chicago Opera Company to Give Concert in Maine.

poration Counsel to prepare and present

Mount Washington Hotel.

Miss Mary L. Newberry and Miss brother and sister and whom she has brother and sister and whom she has have the Mount Washington from the Balland come out of Russian Poland after many hardships due to the washington Goldreyer has opened Flaming to meet her father, who lives temporarily in the Bronx with her the Washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Arthur Fenn of Poland Rouges of New York Mit. Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Arthur Fenn of Poland Rouges of New York Mit. Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Lucky at the Booth Theatre many hardships due to the washington Rouges of New York Mit. Happy-Go-Miss Georgine Iselin and Marguerite Krebs started for New York yesterday and Col. and Mrs. Mathew A. De Laney for Washington, D. C.

MR. STRAUS GOING TO EUROPE.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail for Europe to-day on board the Mauretania for about two months' stay. They will pass four weeks in Paris and almost as long a time in London.

MR. Spraid Marguerite Arthur Fenn of Poland Spring, who is at the Crawford House. N. H., came to Bretton Woods to play the golf course here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail for Europe to-day on board the Mauretania for about two months' stay. They will pass four weeks in Paris and almost as long a time in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail for Europe to-day on board the Mauretania for about two months' stay. They will pass four weeks in Paris and almost as long a time in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail for Europe to-day on board the Mauretania for about two months' stay. They will pass four weeks in Paris and almost as long a time in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail solid the Mountainview House at Whitefield Miss H. L. Yeaw of South Orange, N. J., entertained a party at tea at Polly's Piace at Colembary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse I. Straus will sail solid the Mauretania for about two months' stay. They will pass four weeks in Paris and almost as long a time in London.

Fortune to Caroline A. Phillips, Henry C. Drayton

and W. A. Drayton.

HARRY HASELWOOD DIES.

value except to owner; reward will be paid for return and absolutely no questions asked. Phone CRIPPS, Schuyler 3618.

LOST-Large sum of money in Bergen, La-fayette Bank envelops; liberal reward to finder. Tel. Midwood 4811, R. E. FOX, Millbasin, Biktyn.

Mr. Schwartz had gone out to make lost in Biltmore Hotel, gold chain brace-nother search and their son had gone of work. Mrs. Schwarts hanged her-o work. Mrs. Schwarts hanged her-asked. Telephone Tarrytown 58. to work. Mrs. Schwartz nanged her saked. Telephone large watch, disself to a gas pipe in her room and was dead when she was found.

LOST-Lady's gold wrist watch, dishape, with black ribbon; reward. EMPEY, room 2210, 61 Bross statuun pi

TICLE DEPT. Grand Central Terminal.

$200 REWARD for return of diamond ball watch, lost Monday, September 27, after 5 o'clock, vicinity of 59th st., or perhaps brown and white tast. Return to SLECHTA 4 HORVATH, 67 E, 59th st.

$150 REWARD
for return of scarf pin containing a pear shaped pear! with small diamond below it:
lust September 20 at or between New York city and Brooklyn, N. Y. MARCUS & CO., 5th av. and 45th st.

LOST-Fur neckpiece in Loew's Reo Thea-tre, 159th st. and Broadway, Friday even-ing, September 24; reward. Tel. Audubon tol.

STONE marten, 81st theatre, Tuesday even ing. Communicate S. E. SKELTON, 23 West 84th. West 84th.

THE finder of brown fur neckplece lost Satvurday evening at Playhouse Theatre or on street between 8 and 11 o'clock, return to MIS. BLONDEL, at Gotham Hotel, Room
408. Reward.

JOSE MARIA BARL

the Council of State, died here to-day.

PHOMPRON-MASON.-Joswell Lee, son Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thompson, to Miss Ruth E. Mason, daughter Mr. C. F. Mason, at Akroa, Ohio. DIED. Kenne, Mairie M.

BOWER.—At Wortendyke, N. J., Tuesday, September 28, 1920, Daniei Franklin Bower, beloved husband of H. Maude Bower, in his Tist year. Funeral at Trin-ity Reformed Church, Midland Park, Fri-day, October 1, at 10:30 A. M. Beading, Pa., and Fort Wayne, Ind., papers please copy.

CODINGTON.—At Somerville, N. J., Mon-day, September 27, Lewis M. Codington, aged 72 years. Funcral will be held from his late residence, 90 North Grove st., on Thursday, September 30, at 2:30 P. M. Friends of the family are invited to ai-tend.

EMERY.—Sept. 29, 1920, Mary Elizabeth, beloved wife of Alfred D. Emery. Funeral on Friday, at 9:39 A. M., from her late residence, 18 St. Nicholas place: themes to the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, 142d st., near Convent av.

Private.

FOOTE.—At San Francisco, Cal., an Bratember 22. Capt. David M., insband Catherine Foote, age 58. Relatives and friends, also New Caledonia Lodge of Nova Scotia R. and A. M., invited to attend fuseral services, to be held by Philadelphia Lodge Michael Arnold, No. 636. F. and A. M., 2 P. M. Saturday. Late residence 1416 W. Toga st., Philadelphia. Interment West Laurel Vault.

FRIEDENHEIT—Gerson, in his 87th year, beloved husband of Fanny, father of Isaac, Harriet Hirsch, Sophia Kingsbacher, Rachel Schloss, Simon, Hannah Abrahams, Erms Lippe, Claire Jacobson and Arthur, Funeral at convenience of family from his late residence, 23 West 96th st.

HIGGINS.—September 29, 1920, at Winsted,

JAMES.-Dr. Howard, "The Funera Church," Broadway at 66th st., Friday 9:30 A. M. JEHI. - Dr. Louis, Sept. 29, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Walters, New-inston, Conn. Burial Lutheran Cemetery, Oct. 1, about 2 F. M.

PLATT.—Alfred H., suddenly, at Saranac Lake, Tuesday evening, Sept. 25, husband of Maria Garsia. Requiem mass 10 A M. Friday, Oct. 1, at Lady Chapel, St. Patrick's Cathedral. Interment private.

20, 2 P. M.

REARDON, — Philip M., dearly beloved brother of Marie, Timothy J. and Dennis L. Reardon, on Tuesday morning, September 29. Funeral on Thursday, September 30, from his late residence, 456 8th st., Brooklyn. Requiem mass at St. Saviour's Church, 8th av. and 6th st., at 10:39 10:30 A. M. Interment private.

WILLEY.—On Tuesday, September 28, 1920, at Pittsfield, Mass., George P. Willey of Brossbyn. Funeral services will be held at Lefferts Place Chapel, 86 Lefferts place, near Grand av., Brooklyn, on Friday, October 1, at 10:30 A. M.